

ERYN MITCHELL

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS & CLIENT ENGAGEMENT

Zirrus One takes pride in being an organization that partners, delivers, adapts and thinks big. And Eryn Mitchell knows how to put those words into action! In fact, if you looked up the word versatile in the dictionary, you would find Eryn's name.

As Director of Operations and Engagement, Eryn's responsibilities include everything from human resources to accounting to client support and day-to-day business operations and back office. She even oversees marketing – including communications, digital/social marketing and website creation and management.

Eryn joined Zirrus One in 2016, having served as Manager, Purchasing for a leading service provider. Her focus on strong vendor relations drove cost savings and secured better lead times while giving her an appreciation of what it means to be a customer. Eryn is committed to serving customers and employees. She is a critical factor in our company's success—and in our customers' success. We all count on Eryn...and she always delivers.
